Hello Mark,

Even though i had few mixed feelings about MOM and the artwork that portrayed certain things (creatures from multiple worlds fighting together, not getting compleated characters cards like Toski, Koma, etc)

I truly appreciate the hard work that went into MOM
(I love Realmbreaker and the flavor cards, Incubate is growing on to me, Battles, team up legendries, enchantments giving pw abilities, Convoke support). I love it more than i thought i would.

Thank you for being accessible and super friendly and down to earth, keep up the amazing work! :)

Hello Mark,

Sorry if this post is long but just wanted to share my heart with regards to MOM.
I love the cool themes (Convoke, Backup, Incubate, spells granting PW loyalty abilities) to name a few, as well as battles. Super cool!

But same time, i cant help but feel that MOM left me feeling/wanting more. I feel it couldve gone all out a little more (more stories on different planes invaded, creatures in the artwork of battles getting cards, the feel of the invasion to last a whole set before the rescue, the promo art that led to wrong conclusions that characters could travel to other worlds, each world having a team-up cards) were few of the points that left me feeling a little deflated and wanting more for what couldve felt like a widespread epic set.

But same time, im super grateful for what i got and i appreciate the hard work you and the whole team puts into sets, wether its stories, card design, logistics, promo and etc. I know im not the only one who probably feels this way and i know you get backlash all the time, but i just want to encourage and thank you for being a small voice and ear for us. Im truly grateful, keep up the great work Mark! ^_^

jml1218 asked:

Give your team high 5's for giving us so many good cards! Compleated characters, a spell that grants convoke, enchantments giving planeswalkers loyalty abilities, a awesome Urabrask card among other cool team ups and Realmbreaker. Thank you so much!! ^_^

You're welcome. I'll pass along the high fives.

I mean, technically it's a mysterious death. Jin was falling off screen getting munched on by Kin. I figure if any Praetor made it out of this, it's them.

I think it was. That passage was just sloppily written due to having to rush the plot forward.

I'm optimistic things can turn around after a month.

Team needs time to find their bearings but yeah, not an ideal start but not the end of the world either.

It was Elspeth that beheaded Vorinclex.
However, it was a random, big hammer person who killed Jin. That killed me.😭😅

Actually, reading it again, I think it is the Askari who kills Vorinclex after he is distracted by Elspeth? The whole thing's not very clear though.

I actually don't mind. Zhalfirin warriors are literally trained to kill Phyrexians, as they phased out on the eve of the Invasion.

Howdy Mark,

Initially i was bummed about some stuff that wasnt in MOM (more legendary team ups, granting Backup to creatures, having keywords from other sets that matched the planes creatures came from to name a few) .

But the more i look at MOM from a flavor standpoint and the cards, im really loving it more and more (Incubate is becoming a favorite, Backup, spells giving PW abilities, and many more) I can honestly say ONE and MOM are probably my favorite sets since Ikoria.

Keep up the great work! Cant wait for Aftermath, high 5's :)

Every year cant be our year, its a matter of time before teams experience a slump or down season.

But its still April, so its too early. I just hate when folks overreact. Do fans know how many wish their teams could have years like we do, so its just perspective people lack.

I felt the cards told a grimmer story than the story, the art, the cards and everything screamed interplanetary battle and lasting consequences but did seem rushed but phyrexians are still cool is the one disagreement but otherwise, had potential of a epic story/sets.

I feel I should give it a second chance.

First saw the first movie in theaters, 4 hours later and left a bad impression, but probably because I never had any background, so I had disdain for the franchise, but 10+ years later, I no longer hate it but don't love it either.

I have been getting questions about my mastering process recently so I figured I would talk about the tools I typically utilize.

(List is not in order)
- multiple stages of subtractive/additive/ mid side eq
- 3 different stages of compression spread throughout with different attack/releases with ratios from 2:1 - 1.5:1
- Usually 4 stages of different saturation all hitting different frequency areas
- Stereo width manipulation
- Soothe
- Slight bit of analog clipping followed by some soft clipping in the box
- 2-3 limiters

Each piece is doing very small things and I'm constantly referencing back and forth to the mix to make sure I'm not making it worse.

Claire D'Loon, Joy Sculptor

Legendary Creature — Human Performer

When Claire D'Loon, Joy Sculptor enters the battlefield, for the rest of the game, tokens you own become cards that are still tokens. (They continue to exist after they leave the battlefield.)

{1}{W}{U}, {T}: You may put a token from your graveyard or hand onto the battlefield.

She'll sculpt goblins, saprolings, Marit Lage . . . though that one takes a lot of balloons.
